

Art education – at the center of attention

From the published report «Curriculum subject «World Art Culture» and modern School» of the deputy director of the Federal State Budget Scientific Institute «Institute of Art Education and Cultural Studies of the Russian Academy of Education», doctor of education, associate professor Alekseeva Larisa:

«And yet, in the current difficult situation, you can be sure of one thing. In comparison with the figures of the development of education, science and culture of that distant time when the subject «History of culture» was an integral part of the education of high school students contemporary teachers, methodologists, including caring colleagues are concerned, have no less potential, intellectual and creative capabilities to advance progressive ideas and projects. One of such promising projects is the introduction to the subject area «Social Sciences» integrated training course «World art culture», compulsory for learning at the secondary level of General education».

Article was prepared on the author's speech materials in section «World Art Culture» within the framework of the All-Russian Conference «Actual problems of teaching Art in secondary organizations of the Russian Federation» (31 March-April 1, 2016).

The new few facts from the history of art in elementary and high school are resented; the main problems of the subject «World Art Culture» in the context of the introduction of Federal State educational Standards are considered too.
