Art education – at the center of attention

On 25th of March 2014 the informational source «Observatory on Arts Education in the CIS Countries» was officially opened.

The Observatory was developed as a part of the UNESCO/IFESCCO joint project «Arts Education in CIS Countries: Building Creative Capacities for the XXI Century» (2009 - 2014). The informational source is hosted by UNESCO IITE, the UNESCO Institute for Information Technologies in Education.

From the published report «Specifics of introduction of the children to the values of folk culture program «World of art images» written by the deputy director of the Federal State Budgetary Scientific Institution «Institute of Art Education and Cultural studies of the Russian Academy of Education», doctor of education Irina Kasheikova:

« Ideally, the mind of the human should be integral (only person with strong rational-logical and emotional-imaginative mind is able to make breakthroughs in science and in art). Therefore, one of the priorities of the school should be the preservation of a person's ability to think by images».

The world of images

From 10th to 14th of November 2016 Forum of fine arts «Draw everything!» was held in the municipal budget institution of additional education «Pokrov children's art school». It was run in the framework of the Second Pedagogic Congress «Teacher's personality to the creativity of future generations».

The purpose of the forum «Draw everything!» was not only to unite people of art and culture, the pedagogical and parental public, numerous children's creative teams, but to demonstrate the role of visual arts in the education of young people and disclosure of creative potential of personality. Among the participants were the students of the school of art from Yakutia, teachers of children's art school from Namsky ulus, as well as deputy director for strategic development of Federal state scientific institution «Institute of art education and cultural studies of the Russian Academy of education», doctor of pedagogical sciences Kashekova I. E. and the teacher of «St. Petersburg state academic art Lyceum named after B. V. Johansson at Russian Academy of arts» Margolin D. S.

The students were given unique opportunity to communicate with artists and professors of fine art from Yakutia as well as from Moscow and St. Petersburg. According to the teachers, thanks to such dialogue many graduates decided to make their life with art.

The forum «Draw everything!» was accompanied by the action «Day of fine arts». The event joined many schools of Khantalassky region of the Republic of Yakutia: that day students of the district took up pencil and brush and began to paint.

Integration in education

In the period from 19th to 24th of December, the Federal state budgetary scientific institution «Institute of art education and cultural studies of the Russian Academy of education» became the organizer of the Second international scientific-practical online conference «Integration in education. Theory and practice of interdisciplinary research».

The conference was held in correspondence (distance learning). A wide range of questions were discussed at the conference. Among them were the interaction of cultural and pedagogical knowledge in teaching the humanities and art disciplines, the interaction of academic education and IT-technologies, perspectives and directions of development of modern cultural and arts education in the information society, as well as new researches in the theory and methodology of pedagogy of art, cultural and humanitarian education.

Let's create together: the contest of children's and teachers' creativity
