

Newsletter

ISSUE 1, 2015
31.03.2015

25 March, 2014. The informational source «Observatory on Arts Education in the CIS Countries» was officially opened.

The Observatory was developed as a part of the UNESCO/IFESCCO joint project «Arts Education in CIS Countries: Building Creative Capacities for the XXI Century» (2009 - 2014).

The informational source is hosted by UNESCO IITE, the UNESCO Institute for Information Technologies in Education.

The mission of the «Observatory on Arts Education in the CIS Countries» is the consolidation of professional communities in the CIS countries based on sharing experience, innovative ideas, and development of integrated projects in the field of education through the fine arts. A significant goal of the Observatory is to work with the modern approaches in the field of cultural diversity based on the state national strategies of development the art education and international connections.

The Observatory operates in two languages, Russian and English, providing fast accessibility to general international official documents in the field of art education:

- materials of UNESCO international conferences on arts education and education through arts issues and perspectives;
- analytical and informational sources from the UNESCO/IFESCCO project;
- news, projects, researches, publications, and information about organizations and persons in the CIS countries in the fields of education and culture.

Based on the current web-source, the Observatory provides newsletters on recent news, events, and publications.

Highlights

First regional conference of representatives of the
UNESCO

First regional conference
of representatives of the UNESCO

The regional festival of children and youth , artistic and technical creativity «Young talents of Moskovia»

Future begins today

First regional conference of representatives of the
UNESCO

On January 23 2015 First regional conference of representatives of the UNESCO club movement of Central Asian countries hold in Almaty (Kazakhstan). The event took place in the conference room at the Holiday Inn. The conference was held in celebration of the seventieth anniversary of UNESCO. Among the participants – representatives of UNESCO and of UNESCO clubs of Central Asian countries, public authorities, international organizations, business circles, prominent scientists and artists.

The participants of the meeting agreed that is was very important to focus on renewable resources, such as, education, cultural diversity and scientific research. Participants also noted that the cooperation between the various UNESCO clubs, indeed, brings tangible results in promoting the best practices of civic and social responsibility.

Young talents of Moskovia

On March 6 2015 the regional festival of children and youth, artistic and technical creativity "Young talents of Moskovia" was hold in Dolgoprudny. The contest is not the first. It is traditional event for Moscow suburbs.

This year the festival not only brought together people who loved theater but also discovered the new talents.

The contest was hold in two stages. According to the results the jury selected the creative teams, finalists in the following nominations: "Debut", "Development" and "Class". Twenty seven municipal units, including municipal districts were attended in the final stage of the competition. The total number of participants amounted nearly five hundred people.

We are open to partnership with national coordinators on arts education of the CIS countries. Please contact us to publish your information about cultural events, conferences, and educational art projects.

Observatory on Arts Education in the CIS Countries

<http://ae.cis.iite.unesco.org/observatory/> Contacts: web-observatory-cis@mail.ru

The information and materials presented on this site do not necessarily reflect the views of UNESCO and IFESCCO.

The authors are responsible for the presented information.

