ISSUES AND PROSPECTS OF ARTS EDUCATION AND EDUCATION THROUGH ART IN CIS COUNTRIES: BUILDING CREATIVE CAPACITIES FOR XXI CENTURY

The Second Regional Expert Meeting with international participation

PROGRAMME

23 – 26 May, 2013
Minsk, Belarus

PROGRAMME
of the Second Regional Expert Meeting “Issues and Prospects of Arts Education and Education through Art in CIS countries: Building Creative Capacities for XXI Century”
23-26 May, 2013, Minsk, Belarus

The Second Regional Expert Meeting “Issues and Prospects of Arts Education and Education through Art in CIS countries: Building Creative Capacities for XXI Century” is held with the participation of experts in the field of arts education in the CIS countries, and international experts.

The Meeting is arranged with a view to analyze the achieved results by CIS countries in development of arts education and education through art, and to define prospects of the further development of national educational systems taking into consideration international documents, including the UNESCO “Road Map for Arts Education” (Lisbon, 2006) and the “Seoul Agenda: Goals for the Development of Arts Education” (Seoul, 2010).

The Programme of the meeting is developed taking into account main points of the “Seoul Agenda: Goals for the Development of Arts Education”, the Concept of Education in the Field of Culture and Arts of CIS Member States and the Recommendations on Legislative Provision of the Development of Arts Education in the CIS Member States (adopted at the 34 Plenary Session of the Inter-Parliamentary Assembly of the CIS Member States on 7 April 2010).

The Meeting will comprise round tables and thematic discussions in particular addressed to:

- (I) Stimulate exchange between research and practice in arts education and education through art;
- (II) Use arts education for the development of creative and innovative potential of society;
- (III) Set arts education as the foundation for balanced creative, cognitive, emotional, aesthetic and social development of children, youth and life-long learners;
- (IV) Foster the constructive transformation of educational systems and structures through arts education;
- (V) Create capacities for arts education leadership, its promotion and policy development in the given field;
- (VI) Initiate arts education partnerships among stakeholders and sectors;
- (VII) Encourage cooperation in developing arts education research and distribute research results, as well as exemplary arts education practices through international structures such as Arts Education Observatories.

The special session of the Expert Meeting will be dedicated to the 2005 Convention on the Protection and Promotion of the Diversity of Cultural Expressions, recognised as an international framework for the governance and management of culture in the 21st century. The implementation of the UNESCO/IFESCCO project will contribute to highlight the role of artists and various cultural venues (e.g. museums) that could help in development of arts education and education through arts.

Special attention will be given to the matters of practical implementation of the Recommendations elaborated within the framework of the UNESCO/IFESCCO Pilot Project “Arts Education in CIS Countries: Development of Creative Capacities in XXI century”. To implement them effectively the Plan of Actions on partnerships will be developed with consideration of national strategies of CIS countries on the development of arts education and education through arts. The prospects of development of the bilingual Russian/English informative resource “Observatory on Arts education in CIS countries”, comprising key information, prepared within the framework of the UNESCO/IFESCCO Pilot Project will be defined.

The Expert Meeting will contribute to the elaboration of new strategies in the field of arts education, to strengthening of collaboration among diverse stakeholders such as national and local authorities, teachers, artists, researchers, associations, foundations and non-governmental organizations, encouraging them to work together towards developing practices and reinforcing the position of arts education in society.
